

Pursuing Justice. Restoring Hope.

The Legal Aid Society is a law firm whose mission is to pursue justice for people living in poverty. We help the most disadvantaged in our community through confusing and difficult times, and our services are always free.

Legal Aid offers clients the opportunity to understand the law and know their rights. We give clients the legal advice and protection they need, and the respect they deserve. We offer services in five areas.

support for families

Programs that address issues related to domestic violence and kinship care. They include the

- Family Advocacy Program
- Grandparents as Caregivers Program

preserving the home

Programs that address issues related to eviction, foreclosure, disruption of a child's education due to relocation, community development, and tenant rights. These include our

- Eviction Prevention Program
- Foreclosure Prevention Program
- Home-Buyer Education Program
- Children-At-Risk Program
- Community Development Program

legal aid society

www.laslou.org

promoting economic stability

Projects that help families escape poverty and achieve financial security. We help clients with government benefit issues, expungement of criminal records, and consumer debt issues. We offer assistance through our

- Economic Stability and Advocacy Program
- Low Income Tax Clinic
- Fresh Start Program

safety, stability, and health

Programs that offer the legal advice and protection clients need to feel stable and secure. These include our

- Nursing Home Ombudsman Program
- Homeless Outreach Program
- Community Development Program

populations with special vulnerabilities

Programs that address issues related to the rights of people diagnosed with HIV/AIDS, seniors and end-of-life planning, children in the juvenile justice system, and foster children attending school in low-income neighborhoods. These include

- HIV/AIDS Legal Project
- Senior Self-Determination and Advocacy Program
- Team Child
- Project Achieve

Our services are always free.

